4th June 2007

Dear Mr Baron

I wrote to you on the 10th January this year in relation to costs owed by you to the Commissioner of Police. These costs came about as a result of the case you brought against the police, which went to trial on 12th October 2006.

As you have not contacted me within the required time to discuss payment terms, I have no alternative but to instruct solicitors to pursue you for the outstanding costs.

You are I am sure, aware you will also be responsible for a proportion of the costs involved in seeking the courts assistance to recover costs.

I would prefer that you contact me so that we can meet to discuss this matter. I am sure you would rather not risk an increase in the costs owed, so please do call me to discuss.

Yours Faithfully

Pete Wakeford
Detective Constable
