Blitz & Bananas!

Step back to Bromley, 1940, where Bessie Smiley and her sisters are inspired to do 'War Work' and secretly help people who have lost everything during the Blitz.

However, their secret mission ~ Operation Knock Down Ginger ~ brings 4-year old Bessie face to face with the scariest old man in town, the 'Grumpy old Granddad', brilliantly played by TV actor, Brian Murphy.

Bessie's engaging wartime adventure is a thought-provoking and moving tale, based on true stories about evacuees, pilots, Prisoners of War and even...a banana!

Filmmaker, Anna Littler (born and bred in Wigan, Lancs and now living in Bromley) created Blitz & Bananas, this feature-length drama. Anna collected WW2 memories from people in Bromley and Wigan, as well as Leeds, Bexley, Biggin Hill, Dartford, Eltham, Lewisham, Otford and Spitalfields, plus other areas of London and Kent.
