FOR YOUR ENTERTAINMENT NEXT WEEK

"THE SHOP AT SLY CORNER" is considered by many theatre-goers to be one of the finest pieces of dramatic writing presented to the Theatre for many years.

Descius Heiss is the owner of a small antique shop in London, where he lives with his sister, and a daughter who means more to him than anything else in his life. But Descius has a past—a past which he has kept hidden for many years from his daughter and her friends. He is a man with a record. But Archie, his young shop assistant discovers the secret and resorts to blackmail.

From the moment of the discovery the play builds up to a terrifying climax, packed with suspense and emotion, and the final curtain leaves the audience breathless with excitement.

"THE SHOP AT SLY CORNER" is a thriller which lovers of drama will remember for many years.

JEAN KITSON

Jean first appeared on the Stage at the age of eleven with a Concert Party which gave shows for the troops during the war. (Her speciality was a "Vesta Tilley" impersonation.) Her first professional part was on the stage of the Prince's here at the age of seventeen when she played a teenager in a play called "Easy Virtue". After working in the capacity of Assistant Stage Manager for nine months, Jean took over Juvenile Parts at the Theatre Royal, Leeds, where she stayed with the Court Players for three seasons. She has played for Mr. Hanson in most of his companies but finally returned to her first love—the Prince's. Jean's favourite parts are "Johnny Belinda" and "Moonyeen" in "Smilin' Through".

She likes cycling, swimming, opening Garden Fetes and Bazaars, and dress-making. (Jean makes most of her own outfits for both "on" and "off" the stage.) She is one of those "rare" persons who enjoys learning and studying long parts, is very happy here in Bradford and finds the Prince's audiences very friendly and appreciative.

NEWS FLASH! Several outstanding plays have been booked for THE PRINCE'S during the next few weeks, including "THE TRIAL OF MARY DUGGAN", "MY THREE ANGELS" and "HIPPO DANCING".
