ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S PLAY

"FRUIT OF THE TREE" is an extremely interesting play by Sheila Donisthorpe.

The action of the play takes place near Colchester. "Fruit of the Tree" begins as a simple, even ordinary, story of family life in which the principal figures are Mrs. Mary Blake, her two daughters, Pippa and Carol, and Hannah Beech their housekeeper-cum-companion. Carol is about to be married to a likeable and well off young man who is secretly loved by seventeen year old Pippa. For some reason the bride to be does not seem to be so enthusiastic about the wedding as she should be. From this point suspicion grows that the family are not all they appear to be on the surface and the mystery deepens.

"Fruit of the Tree" is an absorbing drama which is sure to appeal.
