ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S PLAY

"COOPED UP." Next week Harry Hanson is presenting his company of Court Players in the delightful new comedy, "Cooped Up." This comedy has been written by Archie Douglass who will be remembered for the successful comedy "Too Many Cooks," played here some time ago.

The action of this new comedy takes place in the home of the Eccles family who live on a Council estate and it involves trouble over a hen coop! The council and the tenants do not see eye to eye about this problem and the result is all very amusing.

Here is a comedy which will be suitable for all ages, and must not be missed!
