"BREAKFAST IN BED"

By Jack Popplewell

ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S PLAY

'BREAKFAST IN BED' is the first performance on any stage of the new Northcountry comedy by Jack Popplewell, whom patrons will remember for his very successful thriller which was recently presented at the Princes—'Dead On Nine'. Mr. Popplewell is also well known for his successes as a song writer, among the most popular being 'If I Should Fall in Love Again'!

In his new comedy Jack Popplewell has turned to Yorkshire for his material, and this is quite understandable as he lives at Morley, near Leeds, and he has woven a story around an event which happened in his own family some years ago.

'Breakfast in Bed' is a delightful comedy, with beautifully drawn characters and a story which could happen in any family. Packed with dry, Yorkshire humour here is a play which promises to be outstanding theatrical entertainment.
