NEXT WEEK: The Latest Comedy Success

"RAGTIME"

By David Read

ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S PLAY

"RACTIME" is the latest comedy by David Read, whose other two comedies have already been presented at the Princes Theatre—"BLACK WIDOWS" and "APPLE PIE ORDER".

This new comedy takes place in a University town and the title refers to the time of the University Rag. This is a yearly custom, but the Town Council is violently divided about the merits and desirability of the rag. The newly elected Mayor, very much on his dignity, is opposed to it but his daughter, on the other hand, who is very modern and a student at the University, is all in favour of a good time for all with as much noise as possible.

The clashes which arise between these two parties result in an extremely funny and entertaining comedy.

ARCHIE MOZLEY

Archie Mozley, our popular pianist, has been at the Prince's Theatre for over two years, coming here from the Hippodrome, Keighley. His playing may be different from that which takes place on the stage, but he also has to put on a different 'show' each week and he has a repertoire of thousands of pieces of music. Archie was born at Oakworth and he has lived most of his life in the Bronte country. He commenced studying music when he was nine years old and he has been a professional musician for over thirty years—playing with well-known local Dance Orchestras and in Restaurants and Cafes—mostly in the Bradford district. His first connection with 'The Theatre' was after the first war when he played for a Concert Party with B.A.O.R.

Archie is a Summerscales Gold Medalist—his favourite composer is Chopin and his hobby is practising the classics.
