

Telegraph

Independent

Evening Standard

Time Out

Glynis Henderson Productions in association with Park Theatre present
Action To The Word's

A Clockwork Orange

by Anthony Burgess

Directed by
Alexandra Spencer-Jones

14 Feb → 18 Mar

___ Times

Evenings

Tue → Sat 19.30

Matinees

Thu & Sat 15.00

___ Prices

Previews £18.50

Standard £20-£29.50

Concessions £18.50-£22

Young Patrons* £10

(14-21 Feb)

Groups Buy 10 tickets
get the 11th free

Audio Described

Wed 8 Mar 19.30

Touch Tour 18.00

*Subject to availability.
T&Cs apply.

___ Bookings

See website for ticket details and special offers →
ParkTheatre.co.uk

___ Follow Us

f ParkTheatreLondon

t @ParkTheatre

Age Guidance: 16+

___ Photo:
Matt Martin

Glynis Henderson Productions in association with Park Theatre present Action To The Word's

A Clockwork Orange

by Anthony Burgess

___ Action To The Word's award-winning and breathtaking all-male version of A Clockwork Orange hits Park Theatre. This electrifying and testosterone-filled physical theatre 'horrorshow' exquisitely captures and transcends the spirit of Anthony Burgess' original literary masterpiece.

A Clockwork Orange lures its audience into the glorious glass-edged nastiness of Manchester's underworld. A playtime of orgiastic ultraviolence and sexuality, it is the story of little Alex and his Droogs in their battle against the tedium of adolescence. An unapologetic celebration of the human condition, it remains as terrifyingly relevant today as when the book was published in 1962 and when Stanley Kubrick's film caused a stir in 1971.

This is a show that everyone should experience.

WhatsOnStage

Imaginative and striking...

It sizzles with energy.

Evening Standard

Directed by
Alexandra Spencer-Jones

Lighting Design
by James Baggaley

PARK

Tickets: ParkTheatre.co.uk

Phone: 020 7870 6876

Ⓧ Finsbury Park