APOLLO THEATRE

'A beautiful, eloquent, dazzlingly inventive show about the wonders of life.'

Evening Standard

The National Theatre's acclaimed production based on Mark Haddon's award-winning novel, adapted by Simon Stephens and directed by Marianne Elliott, makes 'a triumphant West End transfer.' - Daily Telegraph

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time also won seven 2013 Olivier Awards, including the prestigious Best New Play award.

Christopher has an extraordinary brain, exceptional at maths while ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. He has never ventured alone beyond the end of his road, he detests being touched and he distrusts strangers. But his detective work, forbidden by his father, takes Christopher on a frightening journey that upturns his world.

Daily Mail

Sunday Telegraph

'A theatrical rush equal to anything on the West End stage!'
