THE DUCK HOUSE

By DAN PATTERSON
and COLIN SWASH

May 2009. Gordon Brown's Government is in meltdown and a General Election is just one year away.

Labour backbencher Robert Houston loves being an MP and will do anything to save his seat – including change sides. All is going well with his switch from red to blue until, on the eve of his final interview with Tory grandee Sir Norman Cavendish, the Expenses Scandal breaks.

As public fury mounts over taxpayers' millions being frittered away on second homes, hanging baskets, moat-cleaning and duck houses, Robert and his secretarial staff (aka his wife Felicity and student son Seb), together with Seb's gorgeous girlfriend Holly and Russian housekeeper Ludmilla, find themselves in big, big trouble.

Ben Miller (BBC1's Death in Paradise and The Armstrong and Miller Show) as the MP who's got it all – and has claimed for most of it – leads an all-star West End cast of Olivier award-winning National Theatre actress Nancy Carroll, Debbie Chazen, James Musgrave, Simon Shephard and Diana Vickers.

Tony & Olivier award-winning Terry Johnson (Hysteria, End of the Rainbow) directs this hilarious satire from two writers who've been making fun of politicians for decades: Dan Patterson (BBC2's Mock the Week) and Colin Swash (BBC1's Have I Got News For You and Private Eye).

THE DUCK HOUSE is an outrageous new laugh-out-loud comedy set in a world of dodgy receipts, dodgier deceit, and pure Parliamentary panic.
