

The Space
in Between

MA Art Psychotherapy
exhibition 2015

MA Art Psychotherapy Students present their art practice which is a central part of the training in a range of media, installations, film and performance work.

The exhibition provides insight into the emotional and relational processes that are encountered in art psychotherapy and invites the audience to engage in looking from this perspective - into the space in between - self and other.

Private View: Thursday 18 June, 6pm-9pm
 Opening times: Thursday 18 June – Monday 22 June, 10am-4.30pm
 Public Seminar: Friday 19 June, 2pm-3.30pm

Venue: Whitehead Foyer/ Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre (IGLT) and 3rd Floor, Professor Stuart Hall Building (the film reel and seminar will be in the Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre) Goldsmiths, New Cross, London SE14 6AD
