IDEALS!
The Sex Maniac's Ball raises funds for Outsiders, a self-help group for people with social and physical disabilities, hoping to find partners. The first Ball took place at the London Dungeon in 1986 and we have funded Outsiders ever since, for twelve years. The Ball is totally run by volunteers and donates all money raised to that purpose, via the Leydig Trust to the Integration Trust (registered charity no 283350), which ensures all charitable aspects of Outsiders are financed. Thus, the Ball paves the way for disabled people to enjoy all the fun we know to be a basic human right!

FAME!
The Sex Maniac's Ball and Erotic Oscar Ceremony have become British Institutions. This year, National TV will be filming the Oscars, plus half an hour of the Ball. Details will be on your ticket. You'll be given ten minutes' warning over the intercom on the night. This you'll be able to keep your anonymity (although we recommend you come out—for your own freedom!)

WHAT TO BRING? - CASH!
Enormous efforts are put into the Sex Maniac's Ball by Britain's most sexually amazing people, to provide you with an exceptional experience. Please bring some cash to enjoy these experiences, remembering where that cash will go!

How to get there (and back)

Map and late-night bus timetable available on request
Taxis will be available at the venue for departure
The Powerhouse is situated just south of Hackney Marshes, in Waterden Road, which joins Homerton Road at Eastway. Signposts to Spitalfields Market and Homerton Hospital will help navigation by road from the north and south-east, respectively.
Public Transport: Central Line to Stratford (then a taxi/No 305 bus). N London BR line to Hackney Wick. Other buses: 308, 26, 30, N26 to Trafalgar Square at 40 minutes past the hour.
Local Hotel Britannia International 163 Marsh Wall, London E14 9SL Tel 0171 712 0100 fax 537 1938.
 Discounts for guests mentioning The Leydig Trust: £80 double incl tax & service. Quick taxi ride away.

Considerations for Disabled Guests
 Although this venue has a staircase at its entrance, once inside, everything is on one level and toilets are accessible for people with mobility problems. If you have such problems, please be rest assured that you will be given every assistance to enter, and then be free to roam everywhere. We will be providing spaces in front of the stage for people who are in wheelchairs / of small stature. If you need signing, please give plenty of notice so that this can be provided. There will be no strobes anywhere in the venue.

FUN!
Take Note— we'll be much stricter than last year on dress code because people who don't bother to dress up have proved to be not much fun either. We'll have changing rooms for people who bring sexy outfits, and another changing room where sexy outfits will be sold to people who are unimaginative enough to think they can turn up in in street/casual/smart clothing and still be in.

GUIDELINES!
 The Sex Maniac's Ball is a celebration of pansexuality, and welcoming people who are in the process of coming out, and disabled people. It is not, however, a free-for-all: gropers and people showing little respect to the sexual space of other guests will be ejected. We apply the Sexual Freedom Coalition Code of Etiquette:

1. SFC Stewards are available to advise and help our guests to feel relaxed enough to be themselves, so have a chat if asked
2. Never touch or intrude upon someone uninvited, and move on
3. Discreetly indicate to stewards any guests who behave disrespectfully to others, before any serious security problems arise
4. Safe Sex - our stewards will happily supply you with a free condom if you're caught on the hop
5. No swastikas or racist symbols - even as a kinky fetish they cause serious misunderstanding and justifiable offence
6. No cameras and no press: this event is private
7. No litter - please use the receptacles provided
