On this occasion it is particularly hard to find materials etc. to make articles for the stalls. If you can help the Stall holders, mentioned above, by gifts of odds and ends, or anything for their stall, it will be gratefully received.

It appears very probable that the war will be over by the time we hold our Garden Party.

The Social Committee hope that you will come along, and bring all your friends with you- let us have a real happy day to-gether.

With the coming of ' peace ' the need of a New Church Hall will be before us. All the Garden Party proceeds will be put to this fund, so we shall be pleased if you will give us your full support.
