Dear Sir or Madam,

Since August 1994, Anglo-Hebrew Publishing has published three books which should be requisite holding for any library concerned with cataloguing anti-Semitic propaganda, the rise of fascism and the lies of our times. These are Liars Ought To Have Good Memories, by A. Baron, the true story of a modern Nazi, 129 pages, £5.50 post free.

Revising Irving, by A. Baron and M. Taha, a documented exposé of the perjury of David Irving at the 1988 trial of Holocaust Denier Ernst Zundel in Toronto, Canada, 150 pages, illustrated, £8.50 post free.

And

HOLOCAUST DENIAL: NEW NAZI LIE, by A. Baron, 179 pages, illustrated with an index compiled by the author, £8.50 post free. This book contains a wealth of detail on the falsification of history; it is researched entirely from public domain sources.
