

International False Rape Timeline - (31) -

Ain't Nuthin' Like A Gang Bang

This is the last time I hold a live hangout on a Sunday night. I had three visitors, and not one of them stayed until the end, even though I advertised it, and the non-turnout can't be blamed on shadow banning. Extremely disappointing.

I'm also having trouble with the new YouTube editing software so edited this off-line and re-uploaded it.

The main subject was the alleged gang rape in Cyprus. I covered this in some depth including an earlier false allegation of gang rape on the island. First though I covered sundry news articles including a madwoman in the North of England who claimed to have been raped twice in quick succession by different men. This article was peddling the garbage of tonic immobility (which I covered in an earlier live hangout).

To debunk this rubbish I discussed the case of a woman who really had been raped, and her reaction.

I also discussed cases of women who are raising money on GoFundMe after allegedly being raped, including one who was recently charged with fraud in this connection.

I covered an unusual take on false memories, false memories that were true in this case.

I covered the recent case of homosexual serial rapist Reynhard Sinaga, comparing him with Stephen Port and John Worboys.

Harvey Weinstein is still in the news, so I gave his trial and conviction by media a mention.

I also discussed the murder of Kyle Farrell by Fariessia Martin. The odious hags Bindel and Wistrich are trying to get this bitch off. I covered a typically dishonest article by Bindel.

Then I came on to the Cyprus case, a classic example of feminist revisionism. I discussed the main reason allegations like this are treated with skepticism. Cyprus is one of those holiday destinations where if you are young, male, reasonably attractive and have money in your pocket, getting laid is as easy as falling off a log.

I gave the Gemini Project a mention, debunking its claims.

I discussed some other false allegations of gang rape including the notorious Rolling Stone hoax, the Duke Lacrosse hoax, and the Hofstra University case.

I finished with a mention of David Pattinson and false allegations generally; his was an absolutely absurd case, as well as a malicious one.
