

The International False Rape Timeline
- live hangout (32) - Dem Bitches Be Crazy

This is the live hangout from January 30, 2019. Due to my failure to come to grips with YouTube's new set up, it was re-uploaded after editing.

I started off by saying this will probably be the last live hangout for some time perhaps forever.

Then I discussed a number of cases of police officers doing things they didn't ought to, of women fighting off attackers, and the like. At some point I misnamed the Rutland & Stamford Mercury.

I covered the Harvey Weinstein case briefly and how the prosecution is attempting to stitch him up with junk science.

On the main theme, I started with a discussion of the utterly depraved Veronica Compton. I followed this with the case of Karen Cosford, then fantasist Lorraine Miles. I mentioned the Mark Pearson case, then certifiable lunatic Esther Baker, then an American teenager who had a "rape fantasy". Others include Gail Sherwood. Carol Knuth is another total nutter, but one I have not added to the Timeline.
