

International False Rape Timeline - (37) -

A round up of the latest news

This hangout - the fourth from the worldwide coronavirus lockdown - went live on YouTube then BitChute on May 31, 2020.

As with the previous three, it was pre-recorded so isn't technically a hangout.

Herein, I covered Joe Biden false accuser Tara Reade in some depth. This woman has now been exposed by a number of sources; she will be added to the False Rape Timeline in due course, but I will say here she is a professional victim whose personal life is a train wreck, as is her business life, including bankruptcy.

I covered the Cooper & Cooper incident in New York's Central Park into which I injected the October 27, 2009 false allegation against and vicious assault on John McGlone by Michaela Morales.

I covered a ludicrous but troubling article from Yahoo! Life which drew a plethora of adverse comments from across a wide spectrum, including women who have their heads screwed on right.

I covered recent, sickening developments in the Challen case which have yet to be added to the Timeline, and finished off with a few words about the recent case of Professor Parisi.
