

International False Rape Timeline – hangout (63) – Clearing The Backlog

This hour long hangout was recorded February 14, 2022 and uploaded to YouTube the following day. It is about what its title suggests, clearing the backlog, in no particular order.

It begins with some comment about the Grace Tame case in Tasmania. Her abuser Nicholaas Bester was interviewed by Bettina Arndt, which obviously didn't go down too well with the mainstream media.

The following cases were also discussed or mentioned briefly:

Ferguson Parker of Belmont, Texas – possibly falsely accused in addition to his proven statutory rape of a teenager at the school where he worked.

The 1984 case of a bus driver acquitted of rape, a dude who had a previous conviction for rape.

A legal case from Ohio, a really sick one involving a female abuser.

The case of American sportsman Trevor Bauer, who will not be entered on the Timeline.

The case of Peng Shuai warranted a mention.

The case of serial rapist Abdallah Baballah.

An alleged rape on an international flight.

A new film about Jimmy Savile by Mark Williams-Thomas.

A number of actresses/celebrities who claim to have been raped (but didn't report it).

A legal development in an aside to the Jeffrey Epstein case.

Various other cases including the alleged Cyprus gang rape of 2019 plus police misconduct, etc.

And certifiable lunatic Wilfred Wong,

Sir Peter Hayman is alluded to incorrectly as Sir Peter Herman.