James Mitchell Todd

BIRTH	18 Mar 1925 Scotland
DEATH	9 Feb 2015 (aged 89) England
BURIAL	Chilterns Crematorium Amersham, Chiltern District, Buckinghamshire, England
MEMORIAL ID	154037119

James Todd was born at Boghead, Lesmahagow, Lanarkshire. An engineer by profession, and also a company director, in later life he would for many years edit the charmingly named "Victims Of Masonic Ill-Treatment", a journal whose origins lay in his own personal experiences of what he perceived as a corrupt judicial system. A pugnacious sort, he was not the kind of person anyone would wish as an enemy, but was capable of acts of extreme kindness, including to total strangers.

He was cremated at Chilterns Crematorium on June 6, 2015. His wife survives him.
