

The 1619 Project Debunked In Two Minutes

The anti-American imbeciles who put together this ludicrous so-called project would have you believe America was built on the backs of slaves, that if the admittedly horrific trans-Atlantic slave trade had not happened, the white men founded America would have floundered. Some of these idiots also believe fantastic tales about great African civilisations of the past. Here is the truth:

This is Chepstow Castle which was built in the Eleventh Century.

This is how the original Saint Paul's Cathedral is believed to have looked around 1560.

This is the Great Wall of China which was constructed from around 200BC.

The pyramids were built over four thousand years ago.

And this was the state of African buildings in the 1920s and later where the White Man hadn't trod or the Arab before him.

Throughout recorded history, the Black African, the Negro, to use an unfashionable though taxonomically correct word, built nothing more sophisticated than a mud hut. He domesticated not a single animal.

He had no written language, and it is generally accepted that without a written language a technologically advanced society cannot exist because knowledge cannot be transmitted to the next generation.

This is the face of Western medicine.

And this is the face of African medicine.

That is the truth about the 1619 Project, the truth your crooked friends in Black Lives Matter won't tell you. In short, you have been lied to, indeed, you have been brainwashed if you believe any of their garbage. Notwithstanding the horrors of the past, horrors that affected everyone, everything you have you owe to the White Man.

The real enemy of American blacks isn't the chimera of racism in all its myriad forms, rather it is the enemy of all nations. So cut the BS and join the only fight that matters, the fight about the crooked, debt-based financial system.
