

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY.

Sydney, Monday.

A young man and a woman were arrested in Sydney last night by detectives and charged with having conspired together to falsely charge and accuse a married man of having criminally assaulted the woman.

Later.

Roy Anderson, or Lionel Liardet (42), commercial traveller, and Eugene Spalding (21), saleswoman, were remanded at the Central Police Court this morning, charged with having, at Werris Creek, conspired to accuse, falsely, Phillip Ryan, of the crime of rape. Bail was allowed, £100 each.
