Dear Teddy Goldsmith,

I guess you have been wondering whether you'll ever get the article you asked me for and I agreed to write. Well, here it is - finally. Even though I know the whole terrible story backwards, I did not remember on which page was what phrase. So I had to reread an awful lot of documents, and get a few others, which I had not bothered before to have, as I had been in Court and listened to the proceedings - like the appearance of our "friend" Doll. And as the object of the exercise is, to go after this guy, I thought we better have all the quotes correct, right down to the last comma, where possible, and it is not a translation from the Spanish.

Anyway, you are welcome to have any document I quote, in case you want them. Quite a lot of the stuff I mention here is even in English.

I do hope you like my effort, and it can be used. I did not bother to put a title on it - I am not very good at that. I thought you will surely have a bright idea for that particular line.

By the way, I was absolutely delighted with the phone call from your friend Nicholas Claxton, And I got very excited about it. I am very grateful to you for getting him interested in this mess. Maybe he will find it more interesting still when he reads this article; as I am sure you are going to give him a copy - or do you want me to send it to him, Also to Prof. Epstein - are you sending it to him?

I am looking forward to hearing from you, and remain with very best regards,

in the future advice
J.G.W.

P.S.

Once you get the other two articles to help "fix" Sir Richard, could you please send me copies? The defense lawyers would be more than delighted, as they are collecting as much material against the gentleman as possible, to bring a claim - criminal proceedings - against him in England. As far as I see it, we could also include Roy Goulding in it.
