

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your E-mail of August 28; I apologise for the delay in replying, I was on holiday of sorts playing at the Mind Sports Olympiad in London where I picked up a couple of medals for chess, a game which I gather originated in your country. Thank you too for the entry form but first I must explain my position as I do not know if I will be welcome.

I am not an academic but have had a journalist's card since 1991. I began researching the Holocaust in British archives around the end of the 80s. I have published two full length books on the Holocaust, the first "Holocaust Denial: New Nazi Lie Or New Inquisition?" which is now out of print, and "Holocaust Affirmers".

I have not done any research on this subject for about three years because since September 11 and the subsequent American-British madness I have realised there are more important things in the world than the suffering – real and imagined – of Jews during the Second World War.

Although I am not an accredited academic and although all my researches have been conducted using English language material, I have found things which nobody else seems to have even considered. London archives are the best in the world for this sort of research because almost all of the important documents of the Holocaust are written in English. The interrogations of the Germans and others were almost all conducted in English. To take just one example, how many people know that at the height of the "Holocaust" British POWs were permitted to ice skate outside the concentration camps miles away? I have documented/photographic proof of this.

Earlier this year I was retired early on medical grounds. I suffer from a severe neck condition which gives me constant pain. I was not expecting to travel abroad this year and because of this my passport is not up to date. I am also not in a position to fund any overseas trip. The following three publications can be found on my website:

I would like to attend the Holocaust conference if my expenses can be covered in full. I would like to give a dissertation the subject. Unlike many Revisionists I have concluded that there were indeed gas chambers in Nazi occupied Europe and that a small number of Jews were killed in them. I believe the Holocaust "legend" grew out of this, and that the Holocaust has been used as a propaganda weapon throughout the Western world since the end of World War II, and not just by the Zionists.

If you would consider inviting me on these terms you would not I am sure be disappointed.

My telephone number is 44(0)208 659 7713
