AIMS

- promote pansexual freedom, mutual tolerance & safer sex
- teach individuals, the media and authorities to revere sexual pleasure
- encourage mutual support of and between other adult sexual freedom campaigns, sex clubs and groups
- reform the sex laws which inhibit the sexual freedom of all consenting adults

Dear Ted

I've been commissioned to write a humorous article on Britain's sex laws for Gay Times & enclosed is my first draft - quite a nifty idea if you think it works.

I hope you don't mind checking it out. The things I'm not sure of: -

① Photographing an ^(just) under 18 year old nude boy - is this contravening the protection of children Act?

② Dates of laws against possession & supply of drugs

③ Any other inaccuracies? I'm not sure what the common laws say.

It would be a shame if I can't use the fantasy ~~to~~ to make the point but guess this is rather like asking a high class chef to design plastic sandwiches (or something).

Anyway - do try to help please.
We never see you at any events these days - please let me know if you can come to any so I can send you tickets.

I'll be debating "Pornography can be beneficial in Society" at the Oxford Union on 5th November.

Perhaps you might like to give me your views (+ come along?)

Jaggy
