Mayday Saturday 1st May

and the PROHABITION OF CANNABIS MARCH

organizer and reporter TIM SUMMERS

About 3,000 revellers gathered at Rush Common, Brixton to march through the town centre and via Stockwell to Clapham Common to "End the prohibition of cannabis" with the full cooperation with local authorities

A well stewarded carnival of drummers, jugglers, musical cyclists led by loud rated music spontaneously fell silent while passing Electric Avenue, in solidarity with the victims of the fascist nail-bombs then going off in London.

Marchers voted in assembly to hold major marches and events every year until prohibition of Cannabis is lifted (Cannabis was banned exactly 70 years ago in a kangaroo Court). This decision was telecommunicated to all 31 major cities across the world taking similar Mayday action

From Stockwell the march swelled to almost double its original size and at Clapham Common about 10,000 people attended the six-hour Cannabis Free Fair; a day of glorious success without any trouble or arrests. The March and Fair indicate how organized united grass-roots action can well surpass the campaign of last year by the dependent on Sunday national newspaper, and move without stopping to end the prohibition of Cannabis

S.M. PRIDE SATURDAY 17TH APRIL

S.M. PRIDE returned to the Conway Hall as a bigger and more varied event than for several years. A great credit to a small group of organizers.

The march set off from Whitehall Place in poor weather but in good spirits. The SFC Banner was carried but was not supported at all well. I know we had two members stewarding the march and three at the hall preparing our contribution but even though more than two members should have rallied to the flag. Where was all the support, which so eagerly suggested we take part in this event at our last members meeting?

We had been asked to run the refreshments and this proved to be a most popular part of the event. We had a queue most of the afternoon, which was mostly due to the quality of our offerings but was at some periods due to shortage of helpers

The main hall was filled with stalls offering anything a true perv could wish for on their birthday, while on stage we had useful and entertaining displays of whipping, bondage and other fetish arts.

In the small hall groups met to discuss various matters of mutual interest. The law was despised of, the Internet explored and bottoms soundly caned.

This event is getting back to the size and standard it had when run by a far bigger organization. With more help from SFC next year should be even better.

TUPPY DOES IT AGAIN

Yes this year's SEX MANIACS BALL was another outstanding success. Over 1,000 people managed to avoid Wembley and spend cup final night in an eastern fantasy world no further away than Tottenham.

As well as the old favorites we had performers all the way from China, a full dental service and couples enjoying what couple do. WELL DONE ALL.
