AIMS:

- fight hypocrisy & puritanism
- combat police interference on clubs, erotic events and productions
- improve press reporting of police action & sexual issues
- get the 'morality' and 'obscenity' laws changed

Dear Ted

I expect you thought I'd forgotten your plea to have your question explained - "Why the British politicians & people are so hypocritical & afraid of public sexual liberation." I had not forgotten but it seemed to me rather cheeky just to phone up a sociologist to ask.

I thus thought of holding an SFC debate on the subject & this developed into the idea of a book.

I enclose a copy of one of the letters being sent off to publishers. I hope you like the idea. If it happens, the book will be dedicated to you, as the man who asked the question first!

Well, everything is looking VERY exciting for the 21st June. Loads of interest from masses of people. We're shortly to start our press campaign.

I've been busy rescuing Outsiders so that's why it's been a bit quiet.

All the working groups are gathering on Saturday at 2pm, including the prostitution & the law working group. I hope you'll be there.

And we're very much hoping you'll be able to speak at 3pm.

By the way, can I advertise your law firm in Consenting Adults - I'd give you a free ad in exchange for all the work you've done.

See you on Saturday hopefully
Lippa
