Dear Nigel Meek,

Thank you for your letter of the 10th June. The information you request is as follows.

NCROPA is still active. It campaigns vigorously against sexual censorship. Details are given to members in the Director's Report presented to General Meetings, which are held annually if possible.

CAC has a wider remit, encompassing all censorship. It collaborates with NCROPA to avoid duplication or contradiction in activities.

LA has a still wider remit, including all freedom, not just freedom of expression. It too collaborates with NCROPA and CAC on censorship matters, to ensure we are all "pulling in the same direction" in that field. On non-censorship matters, however, LA goes its own way.

Tactics and governing bodies of each of these three organisations vary, but they do have some overlap of membership.

Yours sincerely,

E Goodman
Chair of CAC
