AIMS

- promote pansexual freedom, mutual tolerance & safer sex
- teach individuals, the media and authorities to revere sexual pleasure
- support and coordinate the work of sexual freedom campaign groups
- reform those sex laws which inhibit the sexual choice of consenting adults

Wednesday 1st October 97.

Dear Ted,

Thanks for your letter of 15th August 97, regarding the European Convention on Human Rights.

As requested, I enclose two drafts for our letter to all MPs accompanying the Sexual Freedom Bill, for your opinion and potential redraft. The SFC has not yet received any reply to our first letter and Bill delivered to the Home Secretary at the termination of our Parade on Saturday 21st June 97, nor to my enclosed follow-up letter.

I wish to invite you to the next meeting of the Steering Committee of the SFC, where our handling of the Sexual Freedom Bill will be early on our agenda, preferably at Tuppy's home on an evening to suit you. The last such meeting resolved not to email the Bill & letter as this would forbid its printed typographical quality, but in all such matters the Coalition seeks your advice. If you are willing please suggest a convenient date to me or Tuppy soon.

Yes I did scrape a holiday - last week in Hastings!

With best wishes,

Tim Summers

Tim Summers, Chair SFC

P.S. Tuppy says you're going to buy me a drink — name the day, Victoria or Redhill I look forward to meeting up. Tuppy's coming too!
