

ARE YOU PROUD TO BE A JEW?

DO YOU REALISE...

INTERMARRIAGE CREATES...

DIVORCE AND DISCONTENT — Over 70% of intermarriages end in divorce and the remaining partners often express feeling of discontent and regret.

DISCORD AND DIVERSITY — How will you reconcile the absence of religion, the "celebration" of conflicting observances, the loss of closeness of family and friends?

CONFUSED AND PREPLEXED CHILDREN — Your union will produce children who are unsure of their heritage, who will search for their ethnic and religious niche, only to be disappointed again and again. Children who will join the other 10,000 Jewish souls who are lost each year to intermarriage.

GUILT AND REMORSE — In every Jew, no matter how "lapsed," the spark of Judaism, the legacy of over three thousand years of sacrifice, still remains. It will surface — in times of trouble, adversity, illness or despair, your Jewishness will make itself known.

MARRYING WITHIN THE FAITH CREATES...

POSITIVE MARITAL AND FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS — While no one can guarantee that marrying within the faith will result in happiness, history has proven that "likes" stay together more often than "unlikes."

HARMONY — When partners share common backgrounds, goals and ideals, a harmonious family life results.

WELL ADJUSTED AND EMOTIONALLY STABLE CHILDREN — Children who are exposed to unity and traditional values, grow up with a strong sense of self worth and belonging.

PRESERVATION OF AND PARTICIPATION IN AN EVERLASTING CHAIN — Other cultures and civilizations have come and gone, other religions have gained and lost popularity, but only Judaism has endured. As a Jew you can be part of that chain.

Remember the millions of heroic Jewish martyrs who gave their lives so that you and your children can remain Jewish. Do not be a "weak link."
