Subscribers Bulletin, July 1995

SINCE the last issue of British Patriot (no 12 - March 95) was published we have had a number of problems. These problems have resulted in the delaying of our next issue until at least August. As this means a gap of 5 or 6 months between issues, we thought it best to explain the reasons for the delay rather than just leave it and bring out an issue when it is possible.

The main problem regarding publishing the next issue was that we have lost the free help of our friend George, who did 90% of the layout of articles on his computer. Over the last few months he has had major problems himself with his business. So much so that his help, free or otherwise, has stopped. This problem, however, is being overcome and we think we have now found someone who can give us free help and use of their computer.

The other main problem has been the attacks by communists on myself and my flat. Many of you will be aware that my flat was attacked for a second time in the early hours of Easter Monday (17 April). This time I was not injured but the culprits broke down my front door and smashed four windows. The police arrived on the scene in force and very quickly but the scum got away. What is very interesting though is not one 'red' was arrested or even questioned about the attack during the days that followed. Now if a communist, anti-fascist or Black was attacked or had their home attacked, you can bet your life on it, that all known patriots in the area would get a visit from CID and be questioned about it.

On another matter CID have been very slow to act. Those of you who read my editorial in the last issue of British Patriot, will know that I reported Gerry Gable, (editor of Searchlight magazine), to the Crown Prosecution Service for contempt of court, following an article he wrote in the January issue of his race-hate magazine. The article printed blatant lies about me and the attack carried out on me in my home on 25 November 1995. As far as I am aware, CID have not even questioned him about it, let alone take any action against him.

A month after I put in my complaint into the CPS about Gable, he put a complaint in about British Patriot and the former Devon BNP magazine, New Devon Nationalist, claiming that both publications were in contempt of court over the reports on the November 94 attack on myself. Since Gable made these complaints, both myself and a former Devon BNP member have had visits and have been questioned by CID. It seems again that the police are more interested in hounding patriots than helping them!

For these reasons and some others, I have decided to leave my flat in Torquay, (which is where British Patriot is run from), as I cannot rely on the police to take action against any future communist attacks. I feel I am just not safe there any more, even more so after the recent attack on the BNP's Birmingham organiser, Keith Axon, of which I shall tell you more later. I will be moving out of Torbay in the very near future and so British Patriot will have a new tel/fax number. The new details will be sent to you in due course, but for the time being carry on using the existing Torquay box address and tel/fax number. This is another reason for delaying the next British Patriot as we want the new address to be on it before we send it out.

Keith Axon, who stood as a BNP candidate in Birmingham during May's local government elections, was the victim of a vicious attack on his person and his home in the early hours of 5 May 1995. He had just returned home from the election count, when a mob of about 8 communists burst into his flat after he had answered the doorbell. They beat him up badly and wrecked his home. Thankfully, Keith has now recovered and has since issued a statement saying that the attack would in no way deter him from his future political activities. The attack on Keith's property did however, result in damage amounting to about £1,000 in uninsured losses. If you can help, please send him a donation, he is a fine patriot. Cheques should be made payable to Mr K Axon and sent to; PO Box 771, Great Bar, Birmingham, B44 9LZ.

This is the fourth such attack on anti-communists, in their own homes, during the past year or so. The first being on Mr Al Baron, a libertarian and free-lance journalist, the second on Mr Mike Newland, the BNP's national press officer, and the third, the one on myself which you all know about. Only in my case have arrests been made. The two accused have been committed for trial at Exeter Crown Court and I understand the trial will be held in mid-July.

Back to the recent local elections., where many of you will know I stood as an Independent Conservative in my local ward (Tormohun) in Torquay. I polled 411 votes, which was 14.6%, not at all bad for a first time. I would like to thank Alan and Bill from Teignbridge, Steve and David from Exeter and Frank and Tony from Torbay, who helped out with the campaign. Without their help I would not have got such a good vote, it was much appreciated

The only sour point of the campaign, was the smear article on me in the so-called Sunday Independent which came out the Sunday before election day and did not even give me the chance to defend myself or indeed the right to reply. These scum, however, came unstuck when they realised they had printed two blatant lies about me. In the article they claimed I was a member of Torbay Conservative Association and that I had attended a briefing of conservative candidates by Rupert Allison., both of which are untrue. It was good to read their apology in the following weeks edition, as these low-life hate to admit they are wrong!

The person who supplied the false information about me to the Sunday Independent is one Adrian Saunders, the local 'big noise' in the Liberal Democrats. Saunders is one of life's losers, a three times loser to be precise. He was Lib-Dem candidate for Torbay in the 1992 general election and lost. He was Lib-Dem candidate for Devon in the 1994 euro elections and lost, after which he took the matter to the courts as he claimed he would have won but for a Literal Democrat candidate taking some of his votes away. In court, needless to say, he lost!

Not content with lying to the press about me, Saunders 'crowed on' about how bad my election leaflet was. He claimed it was in contempt of court as it mentioned the November 94 attack on me. Saunders claimed he was going to take up the case with; 1) Torbay magistrates clerk, Andrew Mimmack; 2) The Crown Prosecution Service; and 3) the town clerk. We have done some checking around and as far as we are aware Saunders threats were just hot-air, no such complaints have been made. So Saunders is not just a three time loser; he is a three time liar as well! He is one sad individual, not even the local Lib-Dems, who we spoke to at the election count, liked him.

Not to be left out, Gable printed the same rubbish in the June issue of his race-hate magazine, Searchlight. He also claimed that I only got 12.2% of the vote in Tormohun when in fact I got 14.6%. Then again Gerry and his kind have never been very good with figures! What is interesting about Gable's report on the local elections is hat he left out. He failed to mention two of the best results obtained by patriots; B Cheetham stood for Third Way in Herts and polled 435 votes - 27.5% (he was only 95 votes away from being elected); and A Reeve stood in Gloucester for New Britain and polled 75 votes - 25.5% (in a very small ward). Of the other nationalist parties who stood in the elections, the BNP did the best with results ranging from 3.9% in Rochdale, to 10.2% in Essex. The unofficial NF's candidates stood in a number of areas. There results ranged from 7.3% in Sandwell to an embarrassing 21 votes and 0.76% in Exeter. The official NF did not stand any candidates. The UKIP got a few good results ; 402 votes - 21.3% in Axminster, Devon being amongst the best. In Plymouth they fared less well with between 5% to 8% of the vote. The unofficial NF are going to change their name to the National Democratic Party on July 1st. Prepare for power!

Finally, please note that the 3 books, in addition to both badges advertised in the last British Patriot are all sold out. We do still, however, have plenty of letter and car stickers for sale as well as all the videos and magazines listed in that issue. We should also point out that The Revolutionary Conservative and Lone Wolf magazines which we advertised in the last issue are no more; they have both packed up, so do not write to them. As far as we are aware, all other listed publications are still going.

Many thanks for baring with me during these difficult time. I hope it is not too long before we are publishing again. In the meantime keep your letters coming to the Torquay box address; I look forward to hearing from you.

Mark Cotterill - Editor - British Patriot
