

The Italian Way

All the above is fine if you're flying to the big Apple, but what if you're going to Rome? Alitalia, (the wings of Italy) not only provides an excellent in-flight menu, it is also the most punctual airline in Europe. An amazing 190 flights a week connect Heathrow and Manchester to all major Italian destinations, and en route, you can sample such delicacies as smoked salmon, rock lobster and peppered beef. For reservations call 071-602 7111 or for further information call 071-935 1728.