

MCB Moscow City Ballet is at its outstanding artistic best. Brimming with some of Russia's best young dancers, outstanding principals, stunning soloists and a sublime corps de ballet, all underpinned by the dynamic vitality of a live orchestra. Stand-out performances by the Moscow City Ballet dancers never fail to add that magical ingredient of Russian soul.

The Nutcracker

Music: Pyotr Tchaikovsky

MOSCOW
City Ballet

with Full Orchestra

Founder: Victor Smirnov-Golovanov

MCB's Nutcracker is an original interpretation of the eternal seasonal favourite. The choreography, interpretation, and beauty, together with outstanding virtuoso performances constantly win rapturous audience response and excellent reviews. Set to Tchaikovsky's endearingly popular score from the live orchestra, this is an unmissable festive treat for all the family.

"The talented Moscow City Ballet dancers brought this classic winter treat to life with style: Alevtina Lapshina was particularly charming as protagonist Clara: the elegant corps de ballet shimmered across the stage"

Public Reviews Brighton 2012

"For sheer colour, movement, athleticism, artistry and of course music, Moscow City Ballet together with its fine Orchestra put on a great performance, much appreciated by a packed house"

Public Reviews Chichester 2011

Moscow
City Ballet

"Lapshina and Kozhabayev finished with a dazzling flourish and justifiably brought the house down"
