POLLARDS HILL F.C.

Pollards Hill F.C. was originated in 1971, but today's Under 17 team wasn't formed until the 1973/74 season, when they were then aged under 13. They are now the eldest of the other six teams within the club.

Although major honours have eluded the team since their formation, this is looking to be their best season so far. They have reached the Final of the Surrey 'Invitation Cup' and are also challenging for the league title.

Over the years they have travelled on the continent and have lost only one of the five matches played against teams from Holland and Belgium. Eight of the players in today's squad have been with Pollards Hill since 1973.

TEAM MANAGER: Mr. George Robinson

TEAM TRAINER: Mr. Ken Burr.

TEAM COLOURS: Yellow Shirts, Blue Shorts, Blue Socks.
