More than half of the world's population now live in urban areas. Our major exhibition – spread across three galleries – looks at some of the challenges faced by cities and ideas and innovations being developed around the world to improve them. What could you do to change your city?

The City is Ours is part of the City Now City Future season. Find out about more events and displays at museumoflondon.org.uk/citynowcityfuture
